rade Studley, a man of high character The call has been sent out for the Connecticut state Sunday school convention to be held in Hartford on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, Nov. 18, 18 and 20. The Fourth Congregational church, located in the center of the city, has been selected as the convention church. The main auditorium will seat 1,400 people. It will be the largest convention of Sunday school workers ever held in the state and will present the strongest proand will present the strongest pro-gramme ever prepared for Connecticut Bunday school workers.

One of the strongest features to be resented concerns the work of the lementary grades in the Sunday chool. This comes early in the conention proceedings, on Monday afteron, Nov. 18. The principal speaker this conference will be Mrs. Phebe Curtiss of Columbus, O., who occu-

Each of the five sessions of the convention will close with a Bible period, a feature of the meetings which will be delightful to workers of all departments. This period, covering 30 minutes, will be in charge of Prof. E. S. Beardslee, professor of Biblical homilelies, Hartford Theological seminary. Prof. Beardslee's work will be in the nature of Bible expositions, each period to the praises of General Lee and absolutely ignore General Crant, except to say slurringly that while Lee devoted himself to teaching young men in the University of Virginia, Grant was in Wall street trying to make money.

"Between Studley and Baldwin no man who is loyal to the institutions of our country should hesitate a minute."

Cough Syrup" Lecceipt

No Better Remedy at Any Price.

Make a plain syrup by mixing one pint of granulated sugar and ½ pint of warm water and stir for two minutes. Put 2½ cunes of pure Pinex (fifty cents' worth) in a pint bottle, and fill it up with the Sugar syrup. This give you a family supply of the best cough syrup at a saving of $2. It never spoils. Take a tenspoonful every one, two or three hours.

Take a tenspooning every one, two or three hours.

The effectiveness of this simple remedy is surprising. It seems to take hold instantly, and will usually stop the most obstinate cough in 24 hours. It tones up the jaded appetite and is just laxative enough to be helpful in a cough, and has a pleasing taste. The Chief's Blanket," the Biograph Special Indian Feature.

There is a wealth of Indian sentiment in the profound story of the Biograph company, which is the feature at the Breed today, dealing, as it does with the sacred blanket which covered the body of the great chief as it lay upon the funeral pile in the midst of the innermost recesses of the forest. It is a gorgeous affair, and highly prized by the red men and used through the greatest respect for the departed leader. It is stolen by an outlaw, and later given by him to a passing pioneer who has betriended him. The respaining of it by the tribe is the plot of the film, and it presents some marvelous bits of scenery and plenty of good, spirited action.

The Confederate Ironsides is a distinctly southern story and shows among its many thrilling incidents the fight between the Ironsides and the union gunboat. A splendid drama by the Vitagraph is played by Maurice The Confederate Ironsides is a distinctly southern story and shows among its many thrilling incidents the fight between the Ironsides and the funion gunboat. A splendid drama by the Vitagraph is played by Maurice Costello and Florence Turner, and keeps the house in a hum of merriment during the run of it, and offers the highest phase of film-comedy, while Alkali Ike is seen in a new character, which is fully up to his standard of excellence.

The Confederate Ironsides is a distinct the progressive party is in the remance upon the people. We must be ruled by ourselves. We must put the government of this state in the hands of all the citizens. He spoke of following all of Governor Wilson's speeches he stood upon anything. The progressive party believes in knowing where one stands before making an attempt to follow him. Want Men Like Studley.

Mr. Editor: I clip the following from the National Tribune and don't think anything can be said to add to its value. We all know that Simeon E. Baldwin is not, and never will be, a soidier's friend. Simeon E. Baldwin is not and never was a progressive. Simeon E. Baldwin would have made a good governor, perhaps, in 1712, but today we want more like Hon. John P. Studley at the helm. The Tribune says:

His pipes are silent; in despuir Sits Pan amid the river reeds. The wind blows back bis unkempt half Across dank marshes, wild and bare: The natad lurks no longer there. Nor faun his music heeds.

Lift up thy head, god Pan, and see Among the stars in bright array, The nymphs that mortal vales rough fiee! The faun Capella beckens thes
To notes of wilder sestasy—
Take up thy pipes and play!

TWILIGHT.

Sweet is the evening twilight; but, alast There's saddress in it; daylight's tasks are done; and leisure sighs to think how soos must pass Those tints that melt o'er heaven, O

And look like heaven dissolved. A tender flush
Of blended rose and purple light o'es The lustious landscape spreads—like pleasure's blush—And glows o'er wave, sky, flower and paim tree tail.

Tis now that solitude has most pain;
Vague apprehensions of approaching night
Whisper the soul attuned to biles, and fain
To find in love equivalent for light.

—Mrs. M. G. Brooks.
